Dear Kathy:

On this journey that I refer to "my so called life" I've had the pleasure of meeting some truly unique individuals. I'm pleased to add your name and giving spirit to this collection. The instant connection I experienced during our initial phone conversation was amazing. Your commitment to providing quality educational songs for the teachers of North Carolina was evident.

It is with great pleasure on behalf of NCAeyc's Board, staff and Advisory Team that I express sincere joy for your participation in the 2005 Annual Study Conference. Your energetic and informative presentation was so well received, that my Board president immediately requested that you join us again in 2006!

I can't say enough about your willingness to provide numerous quality workshops and a fabulous keynote address. Your tireless efforts and endless energy were the breath of fresh air North Carolina needed. You are truly a gem and thank you again for sharing your expertise with the early childhood educators of North Carolina. I look forward to a long and productive relationship and welcoming you to the 2006 Conference!

Best Wishes,

Roshi Bull-Turner
